Hundreds Of Ways

A highly diverse album has emerged from the encounter between free-style singer Rena Meyer Wiel and multi-instrumentalist Rolf Beydemüller, named after a line from Sufi poet Rumi: „there are HUNDREDS OF WAYS to kneel down and kiss the ground.“

Duo WHITE CANVAS's world of sound moves between song, avant-garde and improvisation, in a great sweeping gesture of love - love of the simple, love of playing, love of melos, and detail.

Singer Rena Meyer Wiel, who shared the stage with Bobby McFerrin at the „Voice Festival“ for the European premiere of his opera „Bobbie“, finds a particularly fine resonance here in the many-sided, multi-stringed guitarist and soundscaper Rolf Beydemüller:

WHITE CANVAS – Music that makes you happy.
